

Madison Broers

Civil Engineering Student

Madison Broers is from East Wenatchee, Washington, where she was the valedictorian of her high school class at Eastmont High School.

She has served as an executive assistant at the Pacific Engineering and Design firm. She is the Steel Bridge Club president and secretary for the American Society of Civil Engineers.

She is active in a number of clubs and organizations including the Society of Women Engineers, the Structural Engineers Association of Washington, and the National Society of Professional Engineers.

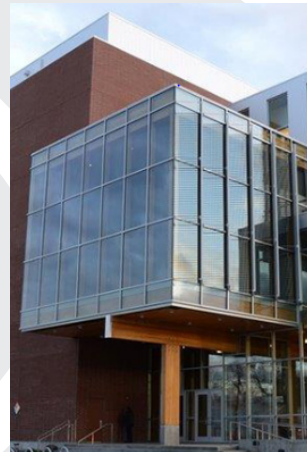

Broers aspires to own a successful engineering firm.

WASHINGTON STATE UNIVERSITY

2017
Convocation

Voiland College of Engineering & Architecture